

WAVERLEY
COUNCIL

Corymbia ficifolia* – grafted (Flowering Gum)

Description

A small tree with an open branching habit with a dense irregular rounded canopy. Brilliant large, staminate flowers are displayed in massed bunches during Summer

Size

Medium shrub to small native tree.
Round headed in shape
Height: 4-6 metres
Width: 3 metres

Features

- Bright colourful flowers
- Large leaves, glossy and dark green with a lighter green underside and weeping habit

Uses

- Good for most soil conditions
- Colourful tree for streetscapes
- Fauna attractive
- Low maintenance

